Would you like support to find accommodation?

If you live in the Eastern Metropolitan region of Melbourne, are from any ethnic, cultural, indigenous, islander and religious background, who are homeless or are at risk or becoming homeless we can provide you with assistance to access long and short term accommodation.

'We assist people to take charge of their own lives'

'We assist people to take charge of their own lives'

‘Providing special attention to the cultural needs of each and every individual’

The aim of the Multicultural Support service is to promote self-reliance and independence while supporting families, single adults and adolescents over the age of 16 to obtain accommodation.

Our staff respect your individuality and assist you in a way that allows you to make your own decisions and maintain your dignity within your own community. Access to interpreter services and bilingual workers to assist with language barriers are available.

Outreach is provided to you if you are experiencing significant accommodation issues, whether living in the family home, a rooming house, private rental or crisis accommodation.

Family support can be provided to help solve problems that are causing concern or threatening to break up the family unit.

Barriers are also addressed that prevent you from accessing or keeping your accommodation.

Information, support and referrals can be provided for accommodation, employment, education, finance, transport, health, childcare, counselling, legal and immigration services.
