Are you concerned
about conflict
within your family?

If you are a young person or care for a young person aged 12-17 and live in the Eastern Metropolitan region of Melbourne we can support you to reduce family conflict and build on family strengths.

‘Early intervention can be the most successful approach to overcoming conflict’

The Stronger Families Program is a short term early intervention program encouraging families to work together in identifying areas of conflict and implementing goals to achieve change.

The Stronger Families Program supports families who are beginning to identify risk factors that may result in adverse outcomes, such as communication issues in the home, homelessness, and school disengagement.
